Description

This elegant sterling silver photo frame was made in 1900 in a most unusual and attractive design. The silversmith's initials - JW - are not identified.

The plain oval surround is supported by applied sections modelled as stylised mistletoe leaves and berries and is fitted to a restored wooden back and easel. Given the mistletoe design motif, this photograph frame would make a very good Christmas gift to yourself or someone you love.

The oval aperture will hold photograph 4¾" x 3½".
