Description

Excellent antique hand-forged set of sterling silver Wellington pattern cutlery for 12 people, mostly made by one of the 19th century's best silver cutlery makers, George Adams.

Wellington is a mid-19th century pattern named after the Great Duke of Wellington. Two variations are known: with a double thread down the length of the stem ending at the bowl with scrolls - like this set - or with a plain lower half of the stem.

This service comprises:

12 table forks
12 table soup spoons
12 teaspoons
12 dessert forks (6 x Goldsmiths Co, 1996)
12 dessert spoons
6 egg spoons
1 basting spoon
1 soup ladle
2 sauce ladles
1 sugar sifter
1 marrow scoop

Also included in the set are cutlery pieces made by Goldsmiths & Silversmiths Company, London 1995 & 1996:

12 fish forks
12 fish knives
12 table knives
12 dessert knives
