Description

Handmade silver cigarette or cigar box of superior quality, with an engine-turned foxhead pattern design engraved exterior. The lid interior is gilded in a sign of superior quality. The silver box is lined, as is traditional, with cedarwood to keep the contents fresh, and the wooden partition can be removed or placed in various slots to house different sized cigars or cigarettes.

Of course, this box can be altered for other purposes; it would make a very good desk box or can be re-lined to be repurposed to hold jewellery.
