Description

Large and impressive handmade silver cigar box boasting a gilded lid interior and fitted with a lock and key. The beauty of this box is that it can be put to a variety of use - on the desk for accessories, storing playing cards, locking away precious trinkets. The interior could be tailored with velvet fitments to hold jewellery.

The box's plain body is perfect for personalising with engraving of your choosing - words or images - and would make an excellent business gift.
