Description

A particularly heavy and entirely handmade set of 3-prong Rattail silver cutlery for 36 place settings. Every piece was made in 1894 by Holland, Aldwinckle & Slater (specialist hand-makers of cutlery) apart from three teaspoons and two coffee spoons.

36 table forks
36 dessert forks
36 table (soup) spoons
36 dessert spoons
36 teaspoons
36 coffee spoons
1 basting spoon
1 soup ladle
8 gravy ladles

One additional basting spoon by Francis Higgins, 1893 is included in the service and the above pieces are supplied in a fitted wooden canteen.

Modern silver table knives, with stainless steel blades making them suitable for putting in the dishwasher, are included, and supplied in tarnish-proof cutlery rolls. Rattail pattern knives are the obvious match but Plain Pistol, Old English Pip, Octagonal Pistol and Old English all complement the Rattail service very well

36 table knives
36 dessert knives
