Description

Arts & Crafts style hand raised and hammered bowl on a pedestal base. There is a hand chased band depicting berries and foliage between bowl and base.

This piece would be a good table centrepiece and is suitable for berries or for a small floral display

The Arts & Crafts movement emerged from a disenchantment with the impersonal, mechanised direction of society in the 19th century, and sought to return to a simpler, more fulfilling way of living. The movement was admired for its use of high quality materials and for its emphasis on utility in design.
