Description

Set of 24 George III silver dinner plates made by Benjamin Smith in 1818 and decorated with a foliage-heightened, gadrooned border, added by Daniel and Charles Houle in 1842 in the early Victorian era .

Each plate is engraved with the Bingham family crest below an earl's coronet, possibly attributable to George Bingham, 3rd Earl of Lucan. All pieces are fully marked on the undersides and borders.
