Description

Highly stylised three-piece Art Deco silver tea set of the period. With typically sleek lines of the Art Deco era, all pieces of this handmade silver tea set feature geometric panelled bodies. The teapot is fitted with a similarly panelled and heat-resistant Bakelite handle and finial. The teapot's cover features a flush jeweller's hinge - a mark of superior quality - and the interiors of the milk jug and sugar bowl are gilded Dimensions given are for the silver teapot. The silver sugar bowl and milk jug are each 105mm (4") tall.

Art Deco was a popular design style in the 1920s and '30s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silverware for dining and entertaining were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
