Art Deco silver tea set

Charles S Green & Co

REF: 5751

Height: 120 mm (4.724") Weight: 928 g

Sold

A stylish three-piece silver tea service in the Art Deco style, comprising teapot, cream jug and sugar bowl. This set has an unusual square form with tapering sides and classic Art Deco moulding to the corners. The fruitwood handle is carved with similar Art Deco detail.

Art Deco was a popular design style in the 1920s and '30s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silverware for the table and entertaining were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
