Description

Large and stylish silver tray with familiar Art Deco detailing in the design of the border and handles. The surface is plain and perfectly suitable for a four or five-piece tea and coffee service, or for use as a drinks tray.

Art Deco was a popular design style in the 1920s and 1930s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
