Description

Traditional antique circular silver rose bowl mounted on a spreading circular base and featuring two c-shaped, flying-scroll, raised handles. A reeded girdle encircles the body of the bowl and an applied thread pattern around the circular spreading base. Filled with flowers and foliage, it makes a beautiful low-rise centrepiece for a table.

The body is suitably thick, with large plain areas for an inscription or images, and means it would be perfect as a presentation piece or as a trophy. Contact us if you wish to discuss your engraving ideas.
