Description

An elegant early-20th-century trophy cup with raised, curved handles decorated with acanthus leaf mounts, an applied girdle around the body square foot. In a reassuring heavy gauge of silver, the silver trophy cup sits on a square black sapele wood plinth and would also be perfect for engraving.

The dimensions shown are for the silver cup only. The plinth is 80 mm (3¼") tall giving a total height of 325 mm (12¾").
