Description

Classic Art Deco period silver cocktail shaker with pull-off stepped cover, removable strainer and plug. The streamlined body has a collet base and stepped upper section, typical of the Art Deco style.

Art Deco was a popular design style throughout Europe in the 1920s and '30s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
