Description

Stylish heavy crystal decanter with fan-cut body, triangular faceted stopper and hallmarked silver collar; all design cues that typify the Art Deco era.

Art Deco was a popular design style in the 1920s and 1930s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
