Description

A simple and elegant bar set of six small port or liqueur goblets with original oval two-handled tray and fitted in their original fitted case.

Art Deco was a popular design style in the 1920s and 1930s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
