Description

One of three highly original water jugs from De Vecchi exhibiting the Italian silver designer's trademark mirror surfaces and a sense of fun.

The Trebok silver waterfall jug, with its smooth olive wood handle, is highly original yet functional. Before reaching the glass, the water in the jug springs from one spout to another as though it was flowing down a stream.

Gabriele De Vecchi's philosophy in creating interactive art was that even the simplest of gestures, such as the act of pouring and offering water should give pleasure. This is especially evident when using this Trebok and his Moulin jugs. They are both functional and playful at the same time.

Limited production of 20 per year.
