Description

Fine pair of antique, three-light, silver-plated candelabra in the neoclassical Corinthian style. The arms can be removed to convert to a pair of candlesticks or a single five light candelabrum, making these a versatile option for your table.

The Corinthian column is almost always fluted and is the most ornate, slender and sleek of the three Greek architectural orders; the other two being Ionic and Doric. Corinthian column silver candlesticks are distinguished by a decorative, bell-shaped capital with volutes, two rows of acanthus leaves and an elaborate cornice.
