Description

Pair of stylish Art-Deco-period sterling silver photo frames in portrait with tapering sides and decorated with engine-turned woven pattern engraving. Each features a central rectangular shield which is suitable for engraving and the frames are fitted with their original oak backs.

Art Deco was a popular design style throughout Europe in the 1920s and '30s characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress.
