Description

Handmade by artist and silversmith, Anastasse Georgiou* for Mappin & Webb, this silver vase is hand chased in high relief with a seascape incorporating various fish, reeds and the sea or riverbed. Some highlights of the vase are gilded.

We believe that only three were made, and that one of the vases is in the Royal Collection.

ANASTASSE GEORGIU FOR MAPPIN & WEBB, IMPRESSIVE AND RARE CONTEMPORARY SILVER VASE, MAPPIN & WEBB, LONDON 2004 baluster form, all hand-worked with a Japanese-inspired design of carp, some partially gilt-heightened, amongst reeds in repousse against a chased and textured ground, finished with two further repousse carp to base. Provenance: purchased in Mappin & Webb, London, and stated by the retailer that this vase is one of only three produced with another being, or having been, in the collection of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II; accompanied by a 2003-04 Mappin & Webb catalogue in which it is illustrated, the page bearing a signature which is possibly that of the silversmith.
