Description

Pleasing three-piece late-Victorian silver tea set with hand raised and delicately hand engraved bodies. The silver teapot has an elegant spout that pours perfectly and is fitted with a fruitwood handle featuring a typical thumbpiece, while the lid is surmounted by a silver ball finial. The interiors of the milk jug and sugar bowl are gilded.

Dimensions given are for the silver teapot.
Sugar bowl 90mm tall
Milk jug 75mm tall
The three pieces of the tea set weigh 32.6 troy oz (1013g).
