Description

Highly stylised three -piece silver tea set of the Art Deco period. With typically bold and sleek lines we associate with the Art Deco era, all pieces of this handmade silver tea set feature geometric panelled bodies. The silver teapot is fitted with a similarly panelled and heat-resistant Bakelite handle and finial. The cover of the teapot features a flush jeweller's hinge - a mark of superior quality.

Art Deco was the popular design style spreading across Europe in the 1920s and 1930s and characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress.

The teapot's capacity is 28¾ fl oz (850 ml), enough for four to five cups of your favourite Darjeeling.
