Description

Large oval antique silver-plated gallery tray. The surface of the tray is beautifully hand engraved with sections of quadriform scrolls, tendrils of foliage, blossoms, bellflowers and flower heads. The open-work gallery depicts finely detailed floral work, foliage and thistles. The tray rests on four cast scroll, shell and flower supports.

Featuring the national flowers of the four countries of the then British Isles - shamrock, rose, thistle and daffodil

The full length of the silver tray, including handles, is 690 mm (27")
