Description

Graceful and stylish antique 800 silver serving tray in the Art Nouveau style, personified by the flowing entwined flowers and blossoms and swirling border. The two handles are styled as flower stems and are seamlessly integrated into the design. Carl Warmuth, was granted silversmith in 1872 and was active between 1874 and 1900.

This is a perfect tray for serving drinks and cocktails.

Art Nouveau was a compelling and energetic style in the visual arts which spanned from around the early 1890s to the First World War. Art Nouveau artists, inspired by plant forms and nature, took organic subjects and flattened and abstracted them into sophisticated, sinuous and flowing motifs. .800 standard silver was popular in continental Europe during the 19th and early 20th centuries.
