

LANGFORDS

Antique & Contemporary Silver

Decorative engraved antique silver serving tray

Martin, Hall & Co

Sold

REF: 7840

Width: 460 mm (18.11")

Depth: 340 mm (13.39")

Diameter: 540 mm (21.26")

Weight: 2174 g

Description

A beautifully made antique, Victorian era silver serving tray. The surface is hand engraved in fine detail and includes the inscription

'Presented to John Wellburn Esq. On his appointment as Superintendent of the Line. North Eastern Railway, Oct. 16th, 1891. By 827 of the Staff of the York District as an expression of their esteem and regard, also in recognition of his high abilities and the kind interest manifested towards those under his control, for a period of 21 years'

The border of the tray is hand chased. The raised handles are cast and decorated with beading, bellflowers and masks (on the underside).

Measurement given including handles 540mm (21¼")