Description

This Edwardian silver syphon stand is one of the most eye catching examples we have ever seen. Of course, it is equally attractive holding a bottle of wine. The syphon stand is beautifully decorated with hand-pierced and engraved Georgian style decoration and has an inset wooden base to give extra stability on the table.

It's not often that we have come across a silver syphon stand in such pristine condition, so we're sure this one will appeal to our customers.

The crest is for the Bowles family and the motto reads UT TIBI SIC ALTERI which translates as "do unto others as you would have done to you".
