

LANGFORDS

Antique & Contemporary Silver

George III silver pint mug
James Wintle

Sold

REF: 7888

Height: 120 mm (4.72")

Weight: 334 g

Description

Classic antique silver pint mug from the George III era and made in a style that was first popular in the early 1700s. The mug has a sleek cylindrical form and is mounted on a spreading circular base. The handle is comfortable to hold and features a simple thumbpiece and an arrowhead finish at the handle's base. It makes a great gift for a man's important occasion.